CONDITIONS FOR RENTAL OF OPERATED EQUIPMENT

Contractor is specifically responsible for:

1. Providing a well prepared working area for the crane before it arrives on the job. This will involve ensuring that:
 - (a) Access roads are adequately prepared
 - (b) There is room to erect and / or extend the boom
 - (c) Blocking will be used to support the boom while it is being assembled and dismantled.
 - (d) Operating locations are graded, level and compacted
 - (e) Blocking is always used under outriggers.
 - (f) The crane supplier will be told if the ground is soft and if hardwood mats or cribbing are needed.
 - (g) Operating locations are far enough away from shoring, excavation, trenches, buried utilities, foundations, etc. to eliminate risk of collapse.
 - (h) Operating locations are chosen so that the minimum clearances from power lines are maintained. If not, the power lines must be either shut down, relocated or specially insulated by the utility.
 - (i) Ropes or barricades are positioned to prevent entry into hazard areas around and especially behind the crane.
2. Securing the site. The customer is responsible for any damages or vandalism incurred while the equipment is onsite during regular working, or after hours. If the equipment is left onsite.
3. Determining the correct load weight and radius and informing All Canada personnel / (site supervisor should know the maximum radius, load weight and lift height of each "pick" before ordering the crane for site planning)
4. Ensuring that the rigging crew is experienced and competent. They must be capable of establishing weights; judging distances, heights and clearances; selecting tackle and lifting gear suitable for the loads; and rigging the load safely and securely.
5. EXCUSE OF PERFORMANCE: Any prevention, delay or stoppage due to strikes, lockouts, labour disputes, act of God, inability to obtain labour or materials or reasonable substitutes therefore, governmental action, domestic or foreign, riot, civil commotion, fire and other casualty and all other causes beyond the reasonable control of lessor shall excuse lessor's performance for a period equal to such prevention, delay, or stoppage.
Lessee hereby waives all claims against Lessor for any delay or loss of materials by reason of any shutdown, or failure of the equipment for any reason.
6. CONFORMANCE TO ALL LAWS: Lessee agrees to use the equipment in strict compliance with all applicable rules, laws, regulations and orders.
7. LIFTING LUGS: Lessee assumes all liability for the adequacy of design or the strength of any lifting lug or device embedded in or attached to any object.
8. PREMIUM TIME: Applies before 7am and after 4:30pm, weekends, holidays and greater than 8 hours.
